

ILLINOIS ENERGY NOW TRADE ALLY RALLY

Monday, October 3, 2016

Hilton Garden Inn & Regency Conference Center – 400 Regency Park, O’Fallon, IL

8:00 a.m. Registration

8:30 a.m. Welcome Back from ILLINOIS ENERGY NOW (Deirdre Coughlin, Department of Commerce & Economic Opportunity)

- Funding availability through May 31, 2017
- The future of ILLINOIS ENERGY NOW
- Overview of Public Sector, Low Income and Market Transformation Programs
- ILLINOIS ENERGY NOW standard and custom incentives

8:45 a.m. Trade Ally Network 101 (Sam Rinaldi, Energy Resources Center)

8:55 a.m. ILLINOIS ENERGY NOW Public Sector Programs Overview

REBATES: (5 minutes each)

- Standard & Custom Rebates Update & New Incentives Application (Byron Lloyd, Department of Commerce & Economic Opportunity)
- Clean Water Energy Efficiency Initiative: Bonus rebate for high efficiency aeration systems at waste water treatment facilities (Byron Lloyd, Department of Commerce & Economic Opportunity)
- Combined Heat and Power \(CHP\): Rebates for CHP projects that increase energy efficiency (Dave Baker, Energy Resources Center)
- Boiler Efficiency Program (Dave Baker, Energy Resources Center)
- New Construction: Rebates for buildings constructed to achieve energy efficiency beyond code requirements (Andy Robinson, Smart Energy Design Assistance Center)

FREE PRODUCTS & SERVICES: (5 minutes each)

- Technical & Application Assistance: Includes building design review and consultation, guidance and consulting for energy savings performance contracts (ESPC), assistance with rebate and grant applications (Andy Robinson, Smart Energy Design Assistance Center)

800.214.7954

www.ilenergynow.org

Illinois
Department of Commerce
& Economic Opportunity
OFFICE OF ENERGY & RECYCLING

-
- Assessments: Learn more about how your facilities use energy and opportunities for improvement with a building energy assessment tailored to your needs (Andy Robinson, Smart Energy Design Assistance Center)
 - Training & Education: Online trainings, in-person workshops, and certification courses, for a wide range of energy efficiency topics (Nick Moshage, Midwest Energy Efficiency Alliance and Andy Robinson, Smart Energy Design Assistance Center)
 - Savings through Efficiency Products (STEP): Free assessment and high-quality energy savings products (Nick Moshage, Midwest Energy Efficiency Alliance)

Illinois Energy Now Partner Programs: (5 minutes each)

- Tune-Ups: Retro-commissioning can help identify measures to improve the control, scheduling, and operation of building systems. Customers can also focus on heating system efficiency, with a comprehensive boiler tune-up (Aleksandr Golger, 360 Energy Group & Smart Energy Design Assistance Center)
- Municipal LED Street Lights (Adena Rivas, Elevate Energy)
- Supporting ILLINOIS ENERGY NOW through Energy Management Education, Direct Marketing & Outreach and Comprehensive IEN Application Assistance and Support. (Carol Kulek, Illinois Association of County Board Members)

10:00 a.m. BREAK

10:30 a.m. Success Stories and Case Studies Panel Discussion (Moderator Andy Robinson, Smart Energy Design Assistance Center; Panelists Tim Gibson, John A. Logan Community College; Ed Matecki, Southern Illinois University; Dr. Tami Kampwerth, Aviston Elementary)

- Tips for Success (Public sector facility managers)
- Beyond Incentives: Innovative ways for public buildings to pay for EE upgrades
- Gaining Organizational Support for EE Projects: How to get approvals
- Other Sustainable Facility Initiatives

11:15 a.m. Utility Energy Savings Program Information

- Ameren (Larry Erwin, Leidos Engineering, LLC, An Ameren Illinois ActOnEnergy Partner)

11:45 a.m. LUNCH

12:45 p.m. Low Income/Affordable Housing Programs

- Low Income Multi-family (Adena Rivas, Elevate Energy)
 - Energy Efficient Affordable Housing Construction (Kate Brown for Paul Knight, Domus Plus)
 - Public Housing Efficient Living: Incentives to Public Housing Authorities to make energy efficient upgrades to buildings (Kate Brown, UIUC Building Research Council)
 - Efficient Living Training – how to leverage EEPs funds for bigger project gain (Kate Brown, UIUC Building Research Council)
-